

When Can I Masturbate?

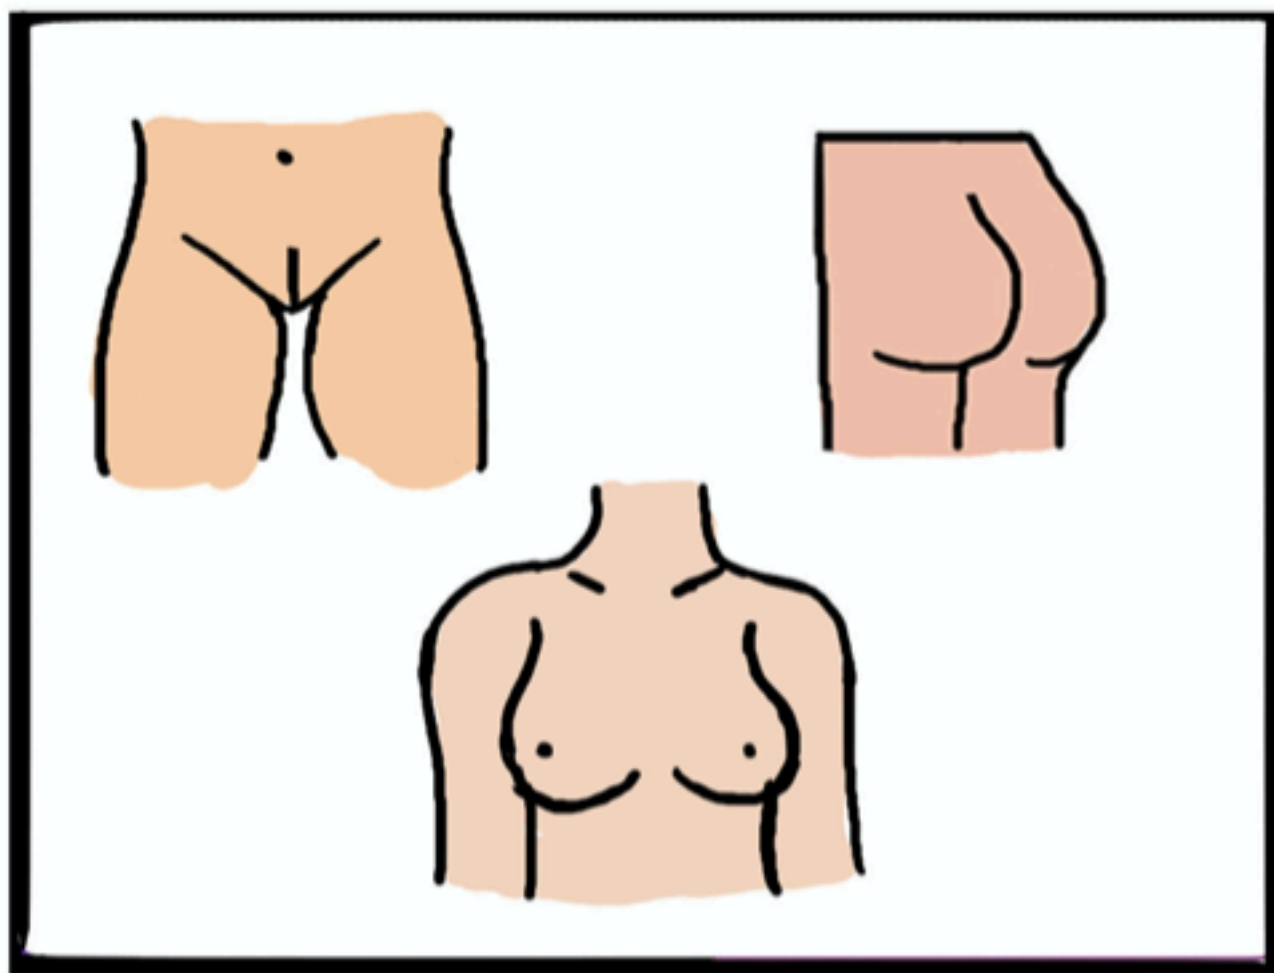

It is okay to touch myself in private.

Private means in my bedroom alone with the door closed.

My private parts are my vagina, breasts and bum.

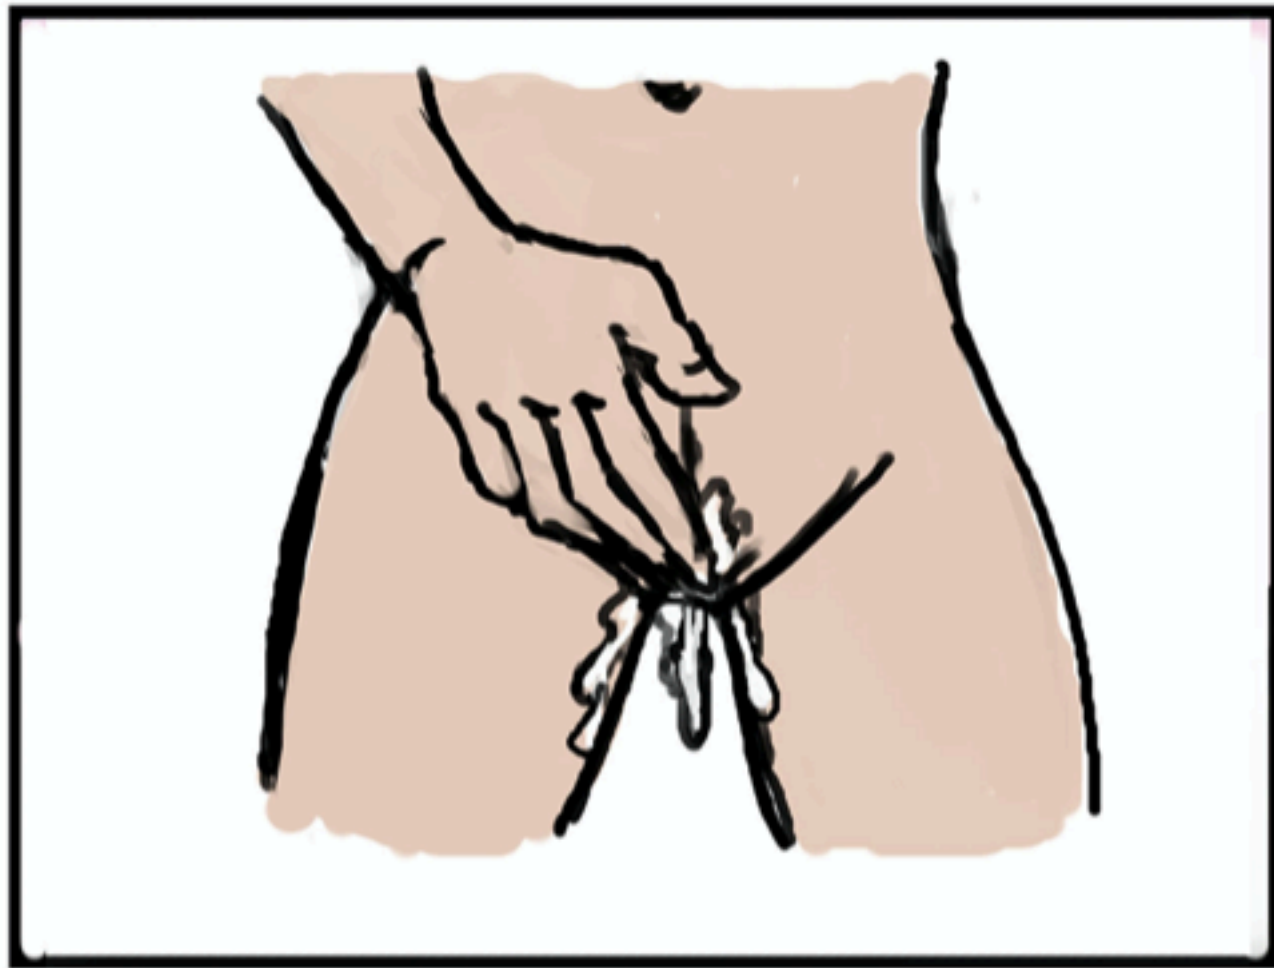

It can feel good to touch myself.

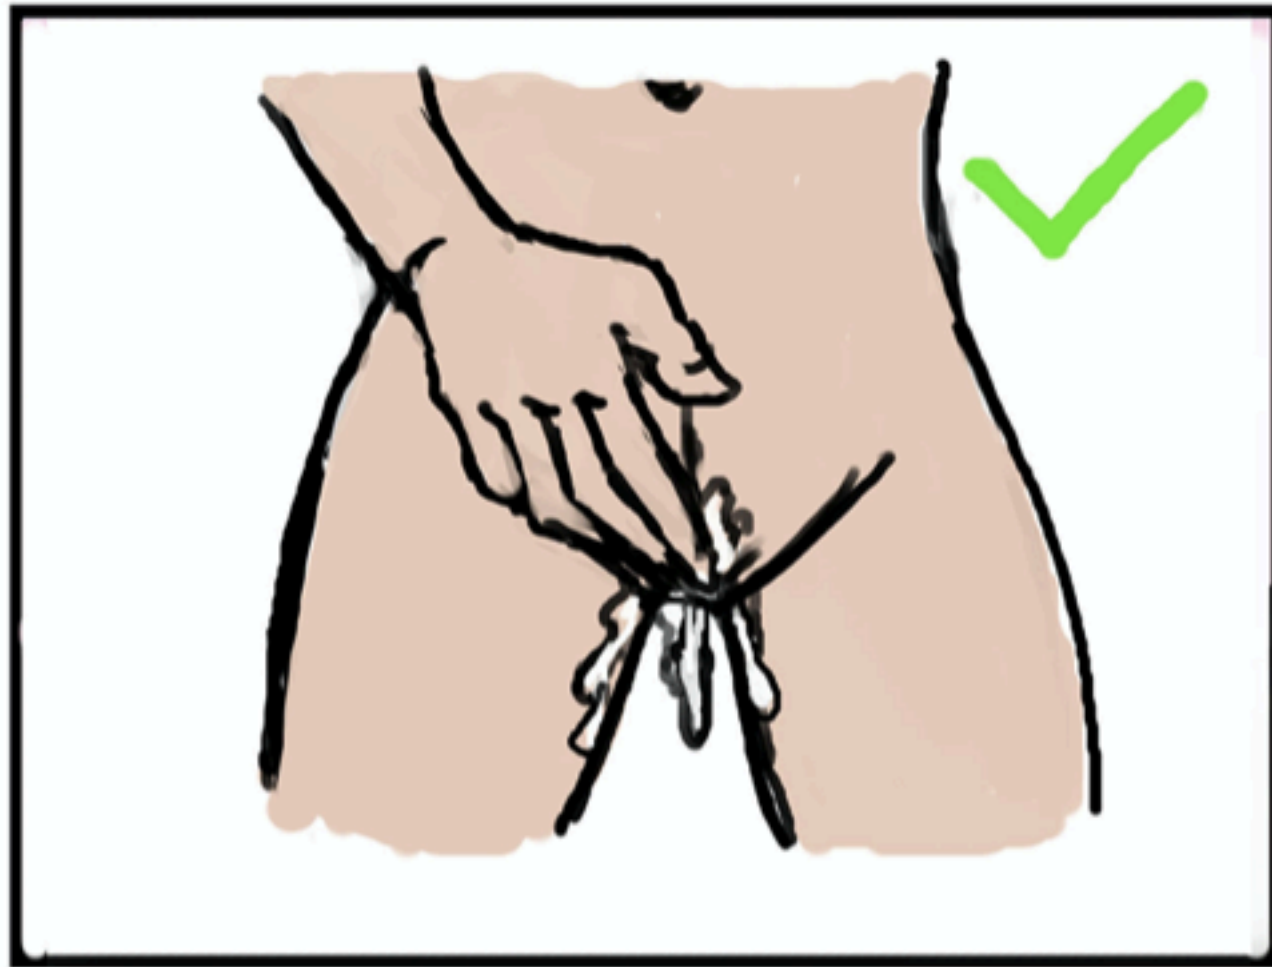

Sometimes I may rub my vagina. This is okay.

Sometimes white fluid may come out of my vagina. This is called discharge.

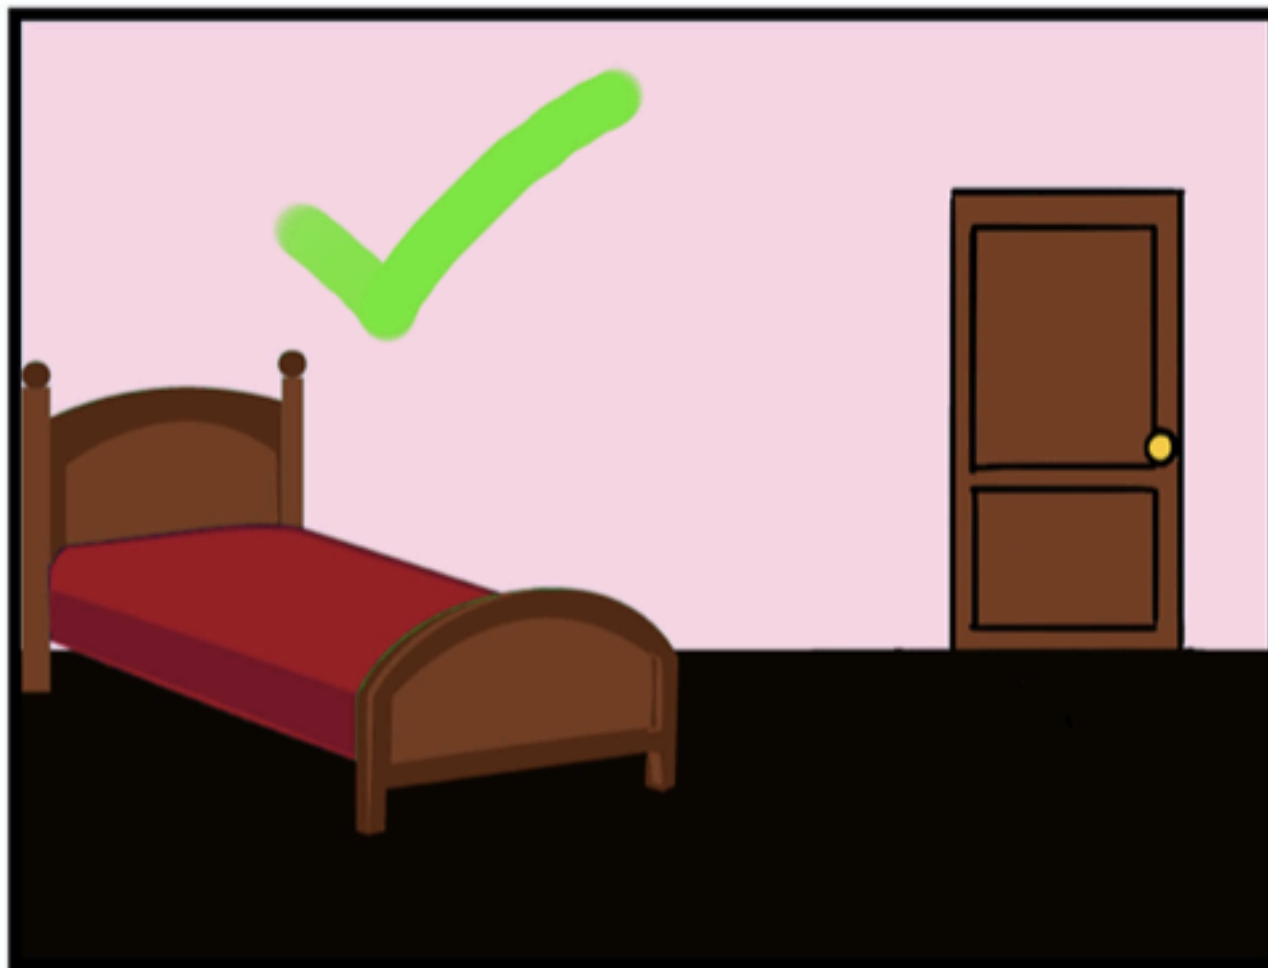

It is okay when white discharge comes out of my vagina.

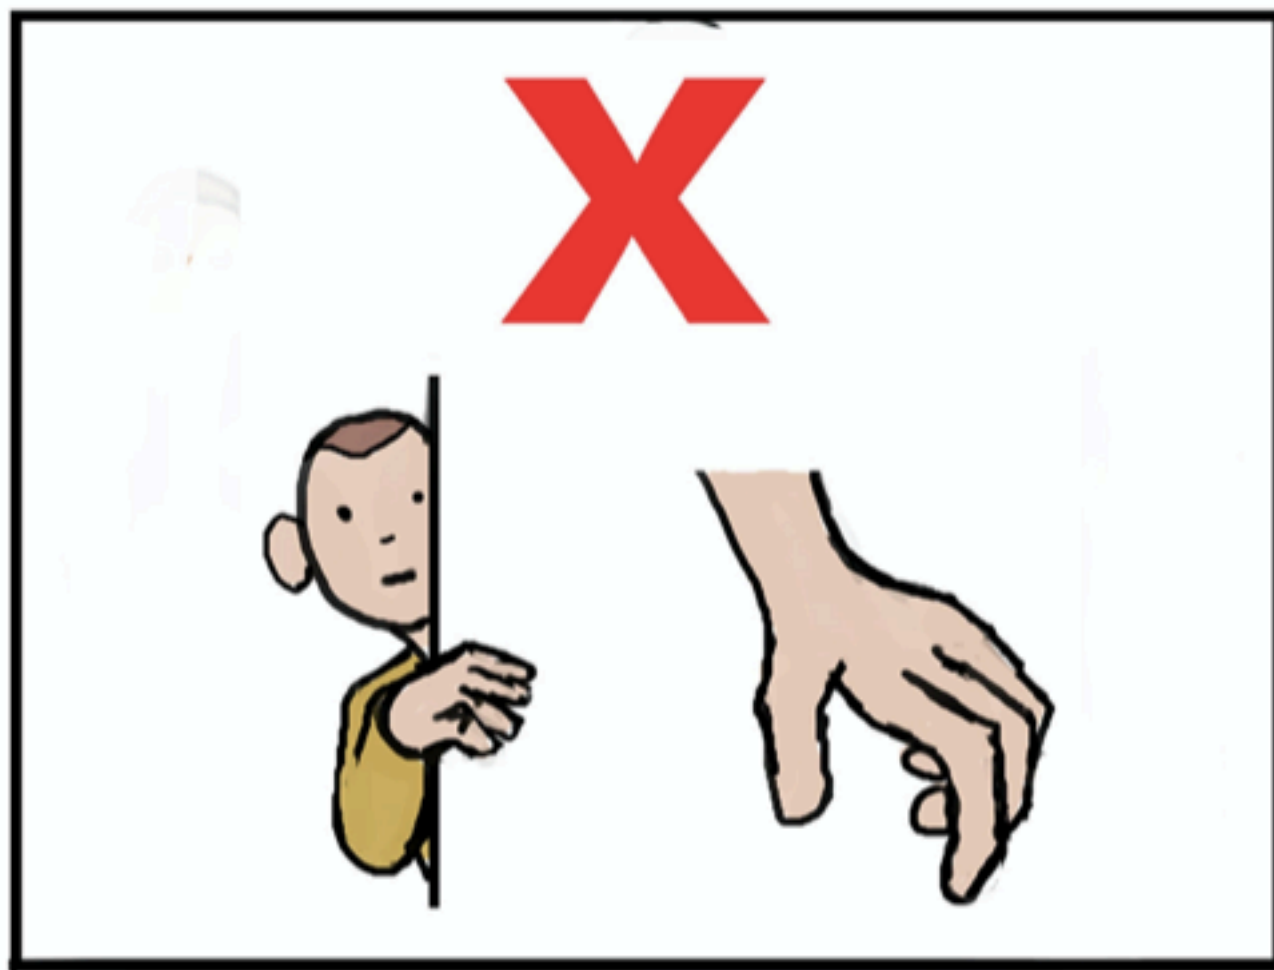

Girls and women can rub their vagina in private. This is okay.

It is okay to rub yourself if you are alone
in your bedroom with the door closed.

No one should be watching or touching you.

If someone else touches your private parts tell your parents or teacher.

Your parents, teachers and friends are happy when you touch yourself in your room with the door shut alone in private.
